

Andrew John Zuccari Memorial Scholarship

2012

Andrew Zuccari was a Niagara Wheatfield student killed by a drunk driver in 1995, at the age of 14. The Andrew John Zuccari Memorial Scholarship is $1,000 awarded annually to a Niagara Wheatfield senior who is college bound or attending higher education/training after high school and who exemplifies the qualities that Andy Zuccari was known for: compassion, kindness, a willingness to help and a sense of humor that he used to enrich the lives of others. These are the qualities of a good friend. Andrew Zuccari is remembered by all who considered him a good friend. To nominate a candidate for this award, please use the following form and return to the NW High School Guidance Office or to: Andrew Zuccari Scholarship, 2610 Niagara Road, Niagara Falls, NY 14304 by May 1, 2012. Remember, this scholarship is not necessarily for those students who stand out academically, although they certainly may be candidates. It is designed for students who want to go to college or institutions of higher learning after high school and who exemplify the qualities outlined.

Name of Nominee:

Address:

Phone:

Extra curricular activities:

Nominated By:

Please give a specific example of something from the candidate's life that demonstrates the following characteristics (please use the back and/or another sheet if needed).

Compassion:

Kindness:

Willingness to Help:

Sense of Humor Used to Enrich the Lives of Others:

Thank you very much for your interest in the Andrew John Zuccari Memorial Scholarship. Finalists will be notified for personal interviews.